CHIP & THE CHARGE UPS

LIGHTNING IN OUR VEINS

Feel Electricity

When I was thirteen, my heart was struck
This music packed more power than love
It always had my back when push had come to shove
There's lightning in my veins now
Jolted my soul like no one could do
More than a phase mom said I'd pass through Sorry, mom, but you were wrong those words just weren't true
There's lightning in my veins now

Feel it, feel it, feel electricity! Feel it, feel it, feel electricity!
Feel it, feel it, feel electricity buzz through your body!

When life kicks teeth we got radio
Or hours at home in the front row
A soundtrack's in our heads wherever we may roam
There's lightning in our veins now
This is our blood, it's our therapy
Better than drugs and we can't OD
It's who we've always been, it's who we'll always be
There's lightning in our veins now

Feel it, feel it, feel electricity! Feel it, feel it, feel electricity!
Feel it, feel it, feel electricity buzz through your body!

Feel it, feel it, feel electricity! Feel it, feel it, feel electricity!
Feel it, feel it, feel electricity! Can you feel it?

Feel it, feel it, feel electricity! Feel it, feel it, feel electricity!
Feel it, feel it, feel electricity buzz through your body!

Toxic Human

Sculpted like you're made in a factory
Next in line, right behind Ken and Barbie
You think you're perfect, you think you're perfect
You wear your gold and tell the world that you're worth it
People bite, never looking past your skin
Like ignoring side effects of medicine
They think you're perfect, they think you're perfect
There's the truth and you find a way to blur it

Books with such beautiful covers don't have the best stories
But your shell shines so people assume that your inside's also worthy of glory

Sooner or later, you leave people fumin'
Everyone finds out you're a toxic human
Sooner or later, you leave people fumin'
Everyone finds out you're a toxic human

Let's rewind, your story, your greatest hits
Tombstones line a graveyard of relationships
You're not so perfect, you're not so perfect
You'd win a heart only to find a way to hurt it
Blows my mind that people still give you trust
Can't they see the estranged friendships in your dust
Hindsight is perfect, hindsight is perfect
You proved the chances that you got were never worth it

When people look in your eyes they don't notice no twitches
But if they looked over your shoulder, they see all the smoke from the burning of bridges

Sooner or later, you leave people fumin'
Everyone finds out you're a toxic human
Sooner or later, you leave people fumin'
Everyone finds out you're a toxic human

A revolving door of people you call friends, the only ones who stay are those with no self-respect
'Cause if they know your past, they know this is true, once you get what you want you will drop them, too
A revolving door of people you call friends, the only ones who stay are those with no self-respect
'Cause if they know your past, they know this is true, once you get what you want you will drop them, too

Sooner or later, you leave people fumin'
Everyone finds out you're a toxic human
Sooner or later, you leave people fumin'
Everyone finds out you're a toxic human

This Bomb Ain't Gonna Light Itself

We like a barrel of explosives
55 gallons set to blow
We gonna show 'em how to live hard
And leave a crater in this road

Day turns night
Ready, aim, ignite, hey!

Get in the game, and don't be tame, fire up the flame
This bomb ain't gonna light itself
Let's cause a scene, and make 'em scream, spit gasoline
This bomb ain't gonna light itself
This bomb...this bomb ain't gonna light itself

We like a bunch of loaded tankers
This thirsty city needs our fuel
Engulfed in music, love, and blue lights
We dance on hot and burning coals

Day turns night
Ready, aim, ignite, hey!

Get in the game, and don't be tame, fire up the flame
This bomb ain't gonna light itself
Let's cause a scene, and make 'em scream, spit gasoline
This bomb ain't gonna light itself
This bomb...this bomb ain't gonna light itself

Strike the match, touch the wick
Crank it up, let's get sick
Strike the match, touch the wick

We like a barrel of explosives
Fifty-five gallons set to blow

Get in the game, and don't be tame, fire up the flame
This bomb ain't gonna light itself
Let's cause a scene, and make 'em scream, spit gasoline
This bomb ain't gonna light itself
This bomb...this bomb ain't gonna light itself

Iced Tea and Lemonade

Two strong spirits, just fine on our own
Don't need others to make us feel whole
Cool, independent, so perfectly made
We're separate flavors and darlin' you, you're lemonade
I'm iced tea, you're lemonade
You're lemonade, I'm iced tea you're lemonade

No one dreamed that we'd stir up so well
But put together, we're tasty as hell
What took so long for this match to be made
A fresh concoction and darlin' you, you're lemonade
I'm iced tea, you're lemonade
You're lemonade, I'm iced tea you're lemonade

Like one plus one is three
When we mix you and me
We're a new possibility
More than the sum of parts
One soul from two hearts
The sweetest recipe

Two strong spirits, once solitary
But now we're blended and truly complete

You're lemonade
I'm iced tea, you're lemonade
You're lemonade, I'm iced tea you're lemonade
You're lemonade
I'm iced tea, you're lemonade
You're lemonade, I'm iced tea you're lemonade
You're lemonade
I'm iced tea, you're lemonade

Glory

Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh

I dreamed about the magic, but life was always tragic
It always put some traffic into my way
The runner with the slow feet, the drummer who felt no beat
I never held a trophy stamped with my name
The echoes of my father, they told me to work harder
A fire needs a starter and so does fame
Just like a playground see-saw, I rose above the tree tops
And now I got arenas screaming my name

So, this, this is what glory feels like, I've waited for this all my life
This is glory
So, this, this is what glory tastes like, I wanna drink it in day and night
This is glory

Don't wake me if I'm sleeping, done sowing so I'm reaping
I never stopped believin' 'cause Journey said
And now the moment got here, I wanna see it so clear
To grip it tight for all years that I'm not dead
I cannot stop from smiling, I overcame the trialin'
Like natives on an island withstand a storm
The ending to the waiting, the start of celebrating
A bottle for champagnin' let's pop this cork

So, this, this is what glory feels like, I've waited for this all my life
This is glory
So, this, this is what glory tastes like, I wanna drink it in day and night
This is glory

Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh

Welcome to my story, come share the glory, glory
Welcome to my story, come share the glory, glory

So, this, this is what glory feels like, I've waited for this all my life
This is glory
So, this, this is what glory tastes like, I wanna drink it in day and night
This is glory, glory

Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, glory
Oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, oh-oh, glory

Unbreakable

I'll admit that I am a dreamer
Driven to be carved out of stone
Every day I'm forging my future
Quitting when they bury my bones

You feel the need to say what you doubt
Spit grenades from such a big mouth
Think that you will fracture my core
You clearly don't know me too well
All my life I've fought and beat hell
I can take all that and more, oh, oh, oh, oh-oh

I'm unbreakable, undeniable, you'll regret tellin' me I'm incapable
I'm unbreakable, unstoppable, throw your stones but you won't crack my soul
No, I am unbreakable, breakable, breakable, breakable
Unbreakable, breakable, breakable, breakable

Gonna need more than that chisel
I'm a diamond, you've met your match
The fortress around my desire
Could survive a nuclear attack

Your words are like wrecking balls, though
They mistake me to be hollow
Never gonna knock me off course
You wanna try and destroy me
It's not smart to annoy me
I'm a winner and this is war, oh, oh, oh, oh-oh

I'm unbreakable, undeniable, you'll regret tellin' me I'm incapable
I'm unbreakable, unstoppable, throw your stones but you won't crack my soul
No, I am unbreakable, breakable, breakable, breakable
Unbreakable, breakable, breakable, breakable

Bend me, bend me, I'll never snap, my will is stronger than steel
Strike me, strike me, I'll strike right back, you won't like what gets revealed
Bend me, bend me, I'll never snap, my will is stronger than steel
Strike me, strike me, I'll strike right back, it's real, oh, oh, oh, oh-oh

I'm unbreakable, undeniable, you'll regret tellin' me I'm incapable
I'm unbreakable, unstoppable, throw your stones but you won't crack my soul
No, I am unbreakable, undeniable, you'll regret tellin' me I'm incapable
I'm unbreakable, unstoppable, throw your stones but you won't crack my soul
No, I am unbreakable, breakable, breakable, breakable
Unbreakable, breakable, breakable, breakable
Unbreakable, breakable, breakable, breakable

Unbreakable, breakable, breakable, breakable, I'm unbreakable

Black and Gold Christmas

Coming back to the 412, I got all my presents bought
Mom got all the perogies made, put a chair in my parking spot
It doesn't matter if that skyline's sprinkled with rain or snow
As long as I can cross a bridge and get to the place that I call home

Nothin' like a black-n-gold Christmas, nothin' like a black-n-gold Christmas, yeah, yeah, yeah
Nothin' like a black-n-gold Christmas, woah-oh, nothin' like a black-n-gold Christmas

I love to walk the dahntahn streets, but if it's too slippy there
I'll see the tree that's at the Point from the Incline or Station Square
We celebrate as a melting pot with a love that's understood
This is what Mister Rogers called a beautiful day in the neighborhood

Nothin' like a black-n-gold Christmas, nothin' like a black-n-gold Christmas, yeah, yeah, yeah
Nothin' like a black-n-gold Christmas, woah-oh, nothin' like a black-n-gold Christmas

Mom asked Santa for a Primanti's date, Dad asked for some Steelers wins
But all I want for Christmas is to spend it with all of yinz

Nothin' like a black-n-gold Christmas, nothin' like a black-n-gold Christmas, yeah, yeah, yeah
Nothin' like a black-n-gold Christmas, woah-oh, nothin' like a black-n-gold Christmas
Nothin' like a black-n-gold Christmas, nothin' like a black-n-gold Christmas, yeah, yeah, yeah
Nothin' like a black-n-gold Christmas, woah-oh, nothin' like a black-n-gold Christmas
Nothin' like a black-n-gold Christmas, nothin' like a black-n-gold Christmas, yeah, yeah, yeah
Nothin' like a black-n-gold Christmas, woah-oh, nothin' like a black-n-gold Christmas
